

WDSF ID-Cards

Why do I need a WDSF ID-Card?

The owner of a WDSF ID-Card you will:

- be able to register at WDSF competitions without having to show any identification
- not have to sign the Anti-Doping form at every competition
- have your name written correctly in the results
- have your WDSF-“World Ranking List” points assigned correctly

What do I need to prepare?

Prior to completing the application form make sure you know your MIN.

The MIN (MemberIdNumber) identifies you as an athlete of the WDSF competition system.

You can find your MIN on the WDSF website at <http://www.worlddancesport.org/Athlete/List>.

If you are 100% sure you are not registered at the WDSF with a MIN you can apply for it during the ID-Card registration.

How to apply?

The WDSF ID-Cards are applied through an online form on the WDSF website. The address is: <https://www.worlddancesport.org/Cards>

Once you completed the application form proceed as following:

1. Download the form as a printable PDF.
2. Print the PDF.
3. Sign the printed form at the designated area.
4. If you have not reached your age of majority, have your parent or legal guardian sign at the designated area.
5. Provide a copy of your passport or national identification card.
If you have not reached your age of majority provide also a copy of your parent's or legal guardian's passport or national identification card.
6. Provide two (2) passport pictures (4.5cm x 3.5cm - 1.78" x 1.38").
7. Add 4 EUR or a national equivalent to the envelope.
8. Send the application from with the copies and passport pictures to your national WDSF member body.

Their address is shown once you have completed the form or you can find them on the WDSF website here: <http://www.worlddancesport.org/Member>

The WDSF ID-Card application form provides a lot of assisting information. Move your mouse over the “why?”-text and you will find out more about all the needed details.

When do I receive my WDSF ID-Card?

The time from the application of the ID-Card until you have it in your hands can take up to 3 month.

Please apply now so you are ready to go once the WDSF ID-Card will be mandatory (January 2013)!